

Competition for individual research grants «BelSU Leading International Scientist»

The indicator «The scope of funding under concluded contracts for the implementation of R&D, on the disposal of rights to RIAs obtained under the guidance of a leading foreign scientist» must be completed during the entire declared project completion period or in 1 (one) the year of the research program?

In accordance with the Regulations on the competition for individual research grants «BelSU Leading International Scientist», the indicator «The scope of funding under concluded contracts for the implementation of R&D, on the disposal of rights to RIAs obtained under the guidance of a leading foreign scientist» must be completed for each funded year of the implementation of the research program of the leading a foreign scientist.

Is the indicator «The number of scientific publications of the «Article» and «Review» types in the field of scientific research with affiliation with the NRU «BelSU» (without double affiliation for a leading foreign scientist), prepared by a leading foreign scientist and published in high-ranking scientific publications (journals), indexed in international and (or) Russian databases (information and analytical systems of scientific citation), from the «White List» represented by a cumulative total?

This indicator is represented by the actual value of scientific publications of the types «Article», «Review», prepared and published in highly rated scientific publications (journals) indexed in international and (or) Russian databases during the reporting period of the research program.

Can one scientist submit several applications for participation in the competition for individual research grants «BelSU Leading International Scientist»?

The competition regulations provide for the submission of one application per scientist.