

Competition for individual research grants «BelSU Postdoc»

How is the application for individual research grants «BelSU Postdoc» submitted?

The application for individual research grants «BelSU Postdoc» is submitted using an information system, access to which is provided through an interface in the information and telecommunications network «Internet» at the following address <https://bsuedu.ru/bsu/science/grant/postdoc/>

The indicator «The scope of funding under concluded contracts for the implementation of R&D, on the disposal of rights to RIAs obtained under the supervision of a postdoc» should be completed during the entire declared period of project implementation or during the year of project financing?

In accordance with the Regulations on the Competition for individual research grants «BelSU Postdoc», the indicator «The scope of funding under concluded contracts for the implementation of R&D, on the disposal of rights to RIAs obtained under the supervision of a postdoc» must be completed for each funded year of the research program.

Can a person who previously worked at NRU «BelSU» apply for individual research grants «BelSU Postdoc»?

Persons under 35 years of age or younger (at the time of the announcement of the Competition), holding a candidate of science degree or a degree obtained overseas (PhD), and speaking English at least at the intermediate level are eligible to participate in the Competition. Employees of BelSU are not eligible to participate in the Competition.